

International Cinema Club

Trinity 2009 Programme

- 30 Apr Intimate Stories - Sorin (Argentina/Spain 2002)
Three travellers, three journeys, one testament to the warmth of the human spirit.
- 7 May Blow Up – Antonioni (UK, 1966)
Must-see for anyone who missed the Sixties the first time round!
- 14 May Water - Mehta (India/Canada, 2005)
Hindu widow's private battles with caste and tradition.
SPECIAL EVENT WITH OXFORD INDIAN SOCIETY
- 21 May The Man from Elysian Fields - Hickenlooper (USA, 2001)
Struggling author winds up as a male escort...
- 28 May Symmetry – Niewolski (Poland, 2003)
A young man discovers the 'symmetry' of life within prison walls.
- 4 Jun The Diamond Arm - Gaidai (Russia, 1998)
Not so much A Fistful of Dollars, more an Armful of Diamonds, in this cult comedy.
SPECIAL EVENT WITH OXFORD RUSSIAN SOCIETY
- 11 June The Proposition – Hillcoat (Australia/UK, 2005)
Is it right to kill one man to save another?
- 18 Jun Caramel – Labaki (France/Lebanon, 2007)
Six women's lives, interwoven through a Beirut beauty salon.
- 25 Jun Raise the Red Lantern – Zhang (China, 1991)
One man, four wives in 1920s China.

Membership available at the door
Only £7.50 term/£15 year
All screenings free for members

Venue: Engineering Science, Thom Building, LR2
Screenings on Thursdays at 7:30pm

Website: <http://www.internationalcinemaclub.org>
Email: enquiries@internationalcinemaclub.org

